

silverbirch hotel

Centrally located in the beautiful Mid Ulster region, nestling at the foothills of the Sperrins Mountains. Omagh's busy commercial centre is easily accessible from all parts of Northern Ireland including both Belfast International & City of Derry Airports.

At the Silverbirch, we understand that planning any meeting is rarely an easy task even for the most experienced organiser, so having complete confidence in your chosen venue is an essential need to deliver great meetings with ease and style. The test for any venue is whether the client returns year after year, and we are proud that a high proportion of our clientele returns regularly.

business centre

The new stylish & contemporary conference and boardrooms within our dedicated self contained Business Centre, will add a new feel to your meetings.

With four conference rooms, two meeting rooms, located on the first floor together with our ground floor function rooms we can comfortably accommodate 2 - 250 delegates for your conference, board and general business meetings. We are conscious that it is our reputation for hospitality, smooth organisation, professional service, that are the measures of your conferences success.

technology & support

Our Business Centre Conference & Boardrooms offer access to all media using ceiling mounted projectors that can display laptop presentations, TV channels, DVD & VHS. Lecterns providing integrated controls at your fingertips and for ease of use. High speed wired and wireless Internet access provided complimentary to all your delegates in our Business Centre & Public areas of hotel. The professional team at the Silverbirch offers a high standard of service and flexibility and are on hand to assist.

catering for your needs

The catering is an integral part of the arrangements and is often remembered long after the day and our chefs produce a wide selection of mouth watering Executive Lunch Platters or full course menus to excite your taste buds.

With Complimentary Bottled Water, Hot & Cold Beverages, Mints and Stationary Boxes provided to all business centre guests. We understand that each group of people have different requirements so we have developed a series of flexible packages for as many delegates as you want. Facilities can be booked by the day or by the hour - providing a flexible approach to your conference and meeting management.
